NOTES: The issue numbers used here (left-hand column, starting at 1 for the first issue and running up to 319 for the most recently published issue) appeared in the first publication of this list in the May-June 1990 OCB. They have become especially useful for keeping track of the situation in the years of unsteadiness that followed the June 1992 ketchup issue.

Except for translation of Roman numerals, volume numbering has been given as published. Weird or incorrect numbering has been placed in quotation marks, with an annotation noting what the correct numbering should've been. In the Editors? Recap section, parentheses denote corrected numbers.

No issues were published between numbers 281 and 282. Issues since 282 have displayed no numbering of any kind.

Volume numbers have been filled in for this list following the pattern used in previous years and are shown in parentheses.
